Promotion Point Worksheet Revised

The Army will release a revised promotion point worksheet, DA Form 3355, by June 30. The worksheet will retain the current 800-point, six-category format but will redistribute point values to reward personal initiative and superior performance in training and education. Current worksheets for all promotable specialists, corporals and sergeants on standing selection lists by May 31 will be converted to the new system by June 30.

The draft regulation for converting to the new system, Chapter 3, AR 600-8-19, Semi-Centralized Promotions to Sergeant and Staff Sergeant, was recently sent to field personnel units for implementation. Procedures for converting to the new worksheet are available at local personnel service battalions. For info call Sgt. Henderson, 431-2541/civ. 07031-15-541.

Gulf War Incident Hotline Closes

The Department of Defense Gulf War Incident Hotline is no longer accepting incident-related phone calls from members stationed in Southwest Asia during the Gulf War. Members should now call the Office of Special Assistance for Gulf War Illness team, 800-497-6261. For info go to (www.va.gov/health/enviro/help.htm).

Mandatory Departure Briefing Held

The Community Central Processing Facility will hold a Permanent Change of Station and Pre-Separation Briefing May 17, 1 to 2:30 p.m., building 2318, room 4, Patch Barracks. Service members from all military branches who are departing within the next six months are required to attend.

Briefings will include information on clearance from various agencies including transportation, medical and dental clinics, vehicle registration, housing office and Army Community Services.

Army personnel will also receive briefings on personnel and finance issues. For info call Mr. Heisler, 430-4064/civ. 0711-680-4064.

Customs Reverses Tobacco Ban

The U.S. Customs Service has announced tobacco products exported from the United States may be brought back into the United States by travelers in personal-use quantities.

This new ruling overturns a ban which began Jan. 1 and is in effect until further notice. This restriction barred U.S. cigarettes, cigars and tobacco purchased in military exchanges, commissaries and duty-free stores, that were subsequently taken back into the USA.

As returning residents, travelers may include up to 100 cigars and 200 cigarettes. A non-resident may import 200 cigarettes, 50 cigars or 2 kilograms of smoking tobacco for personal use. The ban on importing Cuban tobacco products is still in effect.

For info call 381-8291/civ. 0621-730-8291 or e-mail (www.hqusareur.army.mil/opm/customs.htm).

Prescription Asthma Inhalers Recalled

Schering Laboratories has issued a precautionary recall of certain prescription inhalation aerosols used for treatment of asthma.

The products are Proventil and Warrick brands of Albuterol, USP Inhalation Aerosol and beclomethasone dipropionate, which is marketed as Vanceril Double Strength, Vanceril oral inhalant and as Vancenase nasal pockethaler.

Patients who have questions or suspect they have an affected inhaler should contact their military pharmacy. For info go to (www.dtic.mil/armylink/news/Apr2000/a20000412/medrecall.html).

Leave Those Propane Tanks Behind

Government-procured transportation carriers no longer accept propane tanks in personal property shipments. Recent fires and explosions in shipping containers have resulted in new stringent safety regulations. Tanks already packed and shipped are not affected. For info call 421-2452/civ. 0711-729-2452.

Chemical Conference and Ball Date Set

The European Chemical Conference and Ball will be held July 28 and 29 at the Village Pavilion, Patrick Henry Village, in Heidelberg.

The conference will begin at 9 a.m. July 28, attendance is open to everyone affiliated with the Chemical Corps and there is no charge. The conference theme is Training and Equipping Tomorrow's Dragon Soldiers.

The ball will begin at 6 p.m. July 29, all chemical soldiers and a guest are welcome with a ticket cost of $25. Reservations and payments for the ball must be made by June 16.

For info call 370-5479/civ. 06221-57-5479 or e-mail (503XO@hq.c5.army.mil).

Retiree Council Discusses Health Care

The Army Chief of Staff's Retiree Council met April 3 to 7 at the Pentagon and discussed issues concerning the accessibility, quality and affordability of the military health care system. Topics included TRICARE improvement, establishing a mail-order pharmacy program, expansion of overseas dental insurance coverage and more. For info go to (www.odcsper.army.mil/default.asp?pageid=16).

Manufacturer Recalls Lawnmowers

In cooperation with the U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission, American Honda Motor Co. is recalling lawnmowers sold between May 1998 and January 2000. Fuel tank seams may split and leak fuel. Recalled mowers involve Harmony II walk-behind mowers with model numbers HRT216, HRR216 and HRS216 and serial numbers between 1128495 and 1438098.

For info call American Honda Motor Co., 800-426-7701 or visit the Web site (www.hondapowerequipment.com/recall.html).

Handheld Power Equipment Recalled

In cooperation with the U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission John Deere Inc. is recalling Homelite handheld power blowers and vacuums sold between August 1998 and January 2000. The location of the fuel lines may cause premature wear and leaks. For detailed info call John Deere Consumer Products, 800-242-4672.

Anyone may nominate a candidate by May 22 and information is available at each Youth Service.

Community Gets Quality of Life Brief

A Community Quality of Life Briefing will be held May 18, 6:30 p.m. in Patch High School forum. The briefing is sponsored by the National Military Family Association, a non-profit organization whose sole focus is the military family. Members of NMFA come from the seven uniformed services, active duty, retired, reserve component, their family members and survivors.

The organization serves as the voice for uniformed service family members by educating legislators and policy-making senior officials about issues of greatest concern to military families. NMFA keeps military family members informed about the issues which affect their lives and about the work of NMFA on their behalf. For info call Capt. Alexander, 421-2535/civ. 0711-729-2535.

Town Hall Meeting Reminder

The next Stuttgart military community Townhall meeting is scheduled May 17, 7 p.m. at Robinson Barracks Club.

Take Note of Military Spouses Day

The Stuttgart community is filled with spouses who make tremendous contributions. Take time to show your appreciation to them on May 14, Military Spouse Day.

President Reagan proclaimed the first Military Spouse Day in 1984. Military spouses remain a strong component of the community and rightfully deserve recognition.

Emergency Medical Number Created

A 24-hour collect call phone number has been established for life-threatening emergencies. The Crisis Action Center, located at Campbell Barracks in Heidelberg, can be reached at 06221-336-660.

USAREUR soldiers and civilians can call this number from anywhere in the world. However, it should only be used if the member is unable to contact their command by any other means. For info go to (www.stuttgart.army.mil/emergenc.htm).
